

FCGMS Management school admissions

FRANKLINCOVEY, the global leader in the field of developing & building organizational & personal effectiveness, in collaboration with Global Academy of Technology and Vati Learning Solutions, announced the launch of Franklin-Covey GAT Management School (FCGMS), a premier management school in the Silicon Valley of India. The school is dedicated to providing a creative and stimulating environment to all of its students. The school will be located at the Global Academy of Technology Campus in Rajarajeshwari Nagar, Bengaluru. This is the first time FranklinCovey has been a part of the founding team of a Management School in this part of the world. FCGMS will offer an autonomous Post Graduate Diploma in Management (PGDM), a 15-month programme comprising six terms. The first session will commence on July 27.

The FCGMS curriculum has been designed by taking inputs from the industry and with contributions from eminent academicians and corporate czars including Jack Welch, Stephen R Covey, Ram Charan, Jim Collins, Roger Moser and Dr. Yegneshwar, to name a few. The faculty comes with experience and extensive industry knowledge to provide high quality management education.
